

Scandinavian Brunch

April 16, 2016 - 12:00pm

Re-entering the Great Hall Exploring the World of Viking Archeology

With her expert knowledge of Viking Archeology, Professor Vejby will take us into The 'Great Hall', the central part of Viking tradition, a gathering place where community members would eat, dance, sing, tell stories, and sleep.

Traditional Scandinavian Brunch
Mimosas available for purchase

Members - $17

Non-Members - $22

Tickets available through Brown Paper Tickets

<http://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/2495237>

Questions? Contact Anne-Marie @ 707-894-1807

Mara Vejby is an Instructor at the Sonoma State University OLLI program and Adjunct Lecturer at Santa Rosa Junior College. She has worked as an archaeologist/anthropologist in California, Ireland, Armenia, and the UK. Mara was born and raised in Sonoma County, where she pursued her love of cultures, languages, histories, and art at SRJC and then UC Davis. After getting her BA from the University of California, Davis, she studied in Ireland and got her masters in Archeology from University College in Cork and, later, her PhD from the University of Reading, U.K. Her most recent lecture series for OLLI was on the topic of "Scandinavian Archaeology: Digging Beowulf".

617 West Ninth Street Santa Rosa, CA 95401 707.579.1080

Mail: PO Box 6558 Santa Rosa, CA 95406

www.freyalodge.org